

MISS BOSTWICK WED TO SAMPSON SMITH

Daughter of Mrs. Fitch Gilbert Jr.
Marries Grandson of Late
Admiral Sampson.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy S. Bostwick, daughter of Mrs. Fitch Gilbert Jr., of 801 Fifth Avenue, and Sampson Smith, son of Captain Roy C. Smith, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Smith of Summit, N. J., took place yesterday in Christ Church in Gilbertsville, N. Y. The Rev. Dr. Leon Smith officiated.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Lillian Bostwick. Robert C. McKim of Short Hills, N. J., was best man and the ushers were Prentice Talmage, Foster Bowers, William L. McKim and Albert C. Bostwick, brother of the bride. A large reception at Village Farms, the country home of the bride's parents at Gilbertsville, followed the ceremony.

The bride's father was the late Albert C. Bostwick, prominent sportsman, yachtsman and automobilist, who died several years ago. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jabez Bostwick, whose home for half a century was at 800 Fifth Avenue.

Mr. Smith's mother is a daughter of the late Rear Admiral William T. Sampson, for whom he was named. His brother is Lieutenant Commander Roy C. Smith Jr., of Annapolis, and his sister is Mrs. Spottswood D. Bowers of this city and Cooperstown, N. Y.

The couple will make their home in Short Hills, N. J., after their wedding trip.

Garvin—Halloran.

Charles Denby Garvin Jr., who has just been graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denby Garvin of Harrison, Ark., and Miss Vera Halloran of this city, formerly of Brooklyn, were married yesterday afternoon in the Church of the Holy Name in West Ninety-sixth Street. The Rev. Daniel J. Halloran of St. Paul's Church in Brooklyn, the bride's brother, officiated.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Sarah White. J. L. Pratt was best man and the ushers were Ensigns H. A. Farrington and J. M. McVey, classmates of the bridegroom. A number of other members of the graduating class of the Naval Academy attended the ceremony. Mgrs. David J. Hickey and Michael G. Flannery assisted the Rev. Halloran, and other ministers attending were the Revs. J. Leo Williams, Fraser T. Scullin, Eugene J. Donnelly, George A. Dawson, Thomas A. Sharkey, Thomas McLaughlin, James B. Curry and Joseph P. Carson.

A reception was held at the Commodore last evening, after which Mr. and Mrs. Garvin left for California, where the bridegroom has been assigned to duty.

Tate—Thomason.

The marriage of Miss Pattle Thomason, daughter of Mrs. I. M. Thomason of Spartanburg, S. C., and Frank P. Tate of Morgantown, N. C., took place last Wednesday in the North Presbyterian Church on 155th Street. The Rev. Dr. John R. Mackay officiated. The bride is a well-known educator of the deaf and has made her home in this city for several years. They will live in Morgantown.

Koppe—Lederer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Rauh of the Wellsmore, Seventy-seventh Street and Broadway, announce the marriage of their sister, Mrs. Elsa Lederer, to Dr. Ernest G. Koppe of Boston on June 29. After a honeymoon trip to Europe Dr. and Mrs. Koppe will live in Boston.

Trevor—Clarendon.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Anita Clarendon, a niece of Ida Vernon, the actress, to William Trevor of 307 West Eighty-sixth Street, which took place on Saturday, June 24. Mr. Trevor is the head of the Trevor Corporation.
